GATHER GROW GIVE GO

Contentment is knowing and showing that God has given me everything I need for my present happiness.

Godfidence is the assurance that God is with me and at work in my life.

I rejoiced greatly in the Lord that at last you renewed your concern for me. Indeed, you were concerned, but you had no opportunity to show it. I am not saying this because I am in need, for I have learned to be content whatever the circumstances. I know what it is to be in need, and I know what it is to have plenty. I have learned the secret of being content in any and every situation, whether well fed or hungry, whether living in plenty or in want. I can do all this through him who gives me strength.

Yet it was good of you to share in my troubles. Moreover, as you Philippians know, in the early days of your acquaintance with the gospel, when I set out from Macedonia, not one church shared with me in the matter of giving and receiving, except you only; for even when I was in Thessalonica, you sent me aid more than once when I was in need. Not that I desire your gifts; what I desire is that more be credited to your account. I have received full payment and have more than enough. I am amply supplied, now that I have received from Epaphroditus the gifts you sent. They are a fragrant offering, an acceptable sacrifice, pleasing to God. And my God will meet all your needs according to the riches of his glory in Christ Jesus.

To our God and Father be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

Contentment is learned

In order to grow our Godfidence we must learn Contentment

“I am not saying this because I am in need, for I have learned to be content whatever the circumstances.”

Philippians 4:11

Have you learned to be content in any and every circumstance?

Contentment is not learned by receiving more.

“I can do all this through him who gives me strength.”

Philippians 4:13

The secret sauce is God's strength.

Independence from our circumstances comes through dependence upon God. That is True Godfidence.

Give Generously

Now I want you to know, dear brothers and sisters, what God in his kindness has done through the churches in Macedonia.(Phillippi)

They are being tested by many troubles, and they are very poor.

But they are also filled with abundant joy,

which has overflowed in rich generosity.

For I can testify that they gave not only what they could afford, but far more. And they did it of their own free will. They begged us again and again for the privilege of sharing in the gift for the believers in Jerusalem. They even did more than we had hoped, for their first action was to give themselves to the Lord and to us, just as God wanted them to do.

2 Corinthians 8:1-5

Trust Completely

“And my God will meet all your needs according to the riches of His glory in Christ Jesus.”

Philippians 4:19

Godfidence is not just believing that God can meet all your needs, it is trusting that God will meet all your needs.
